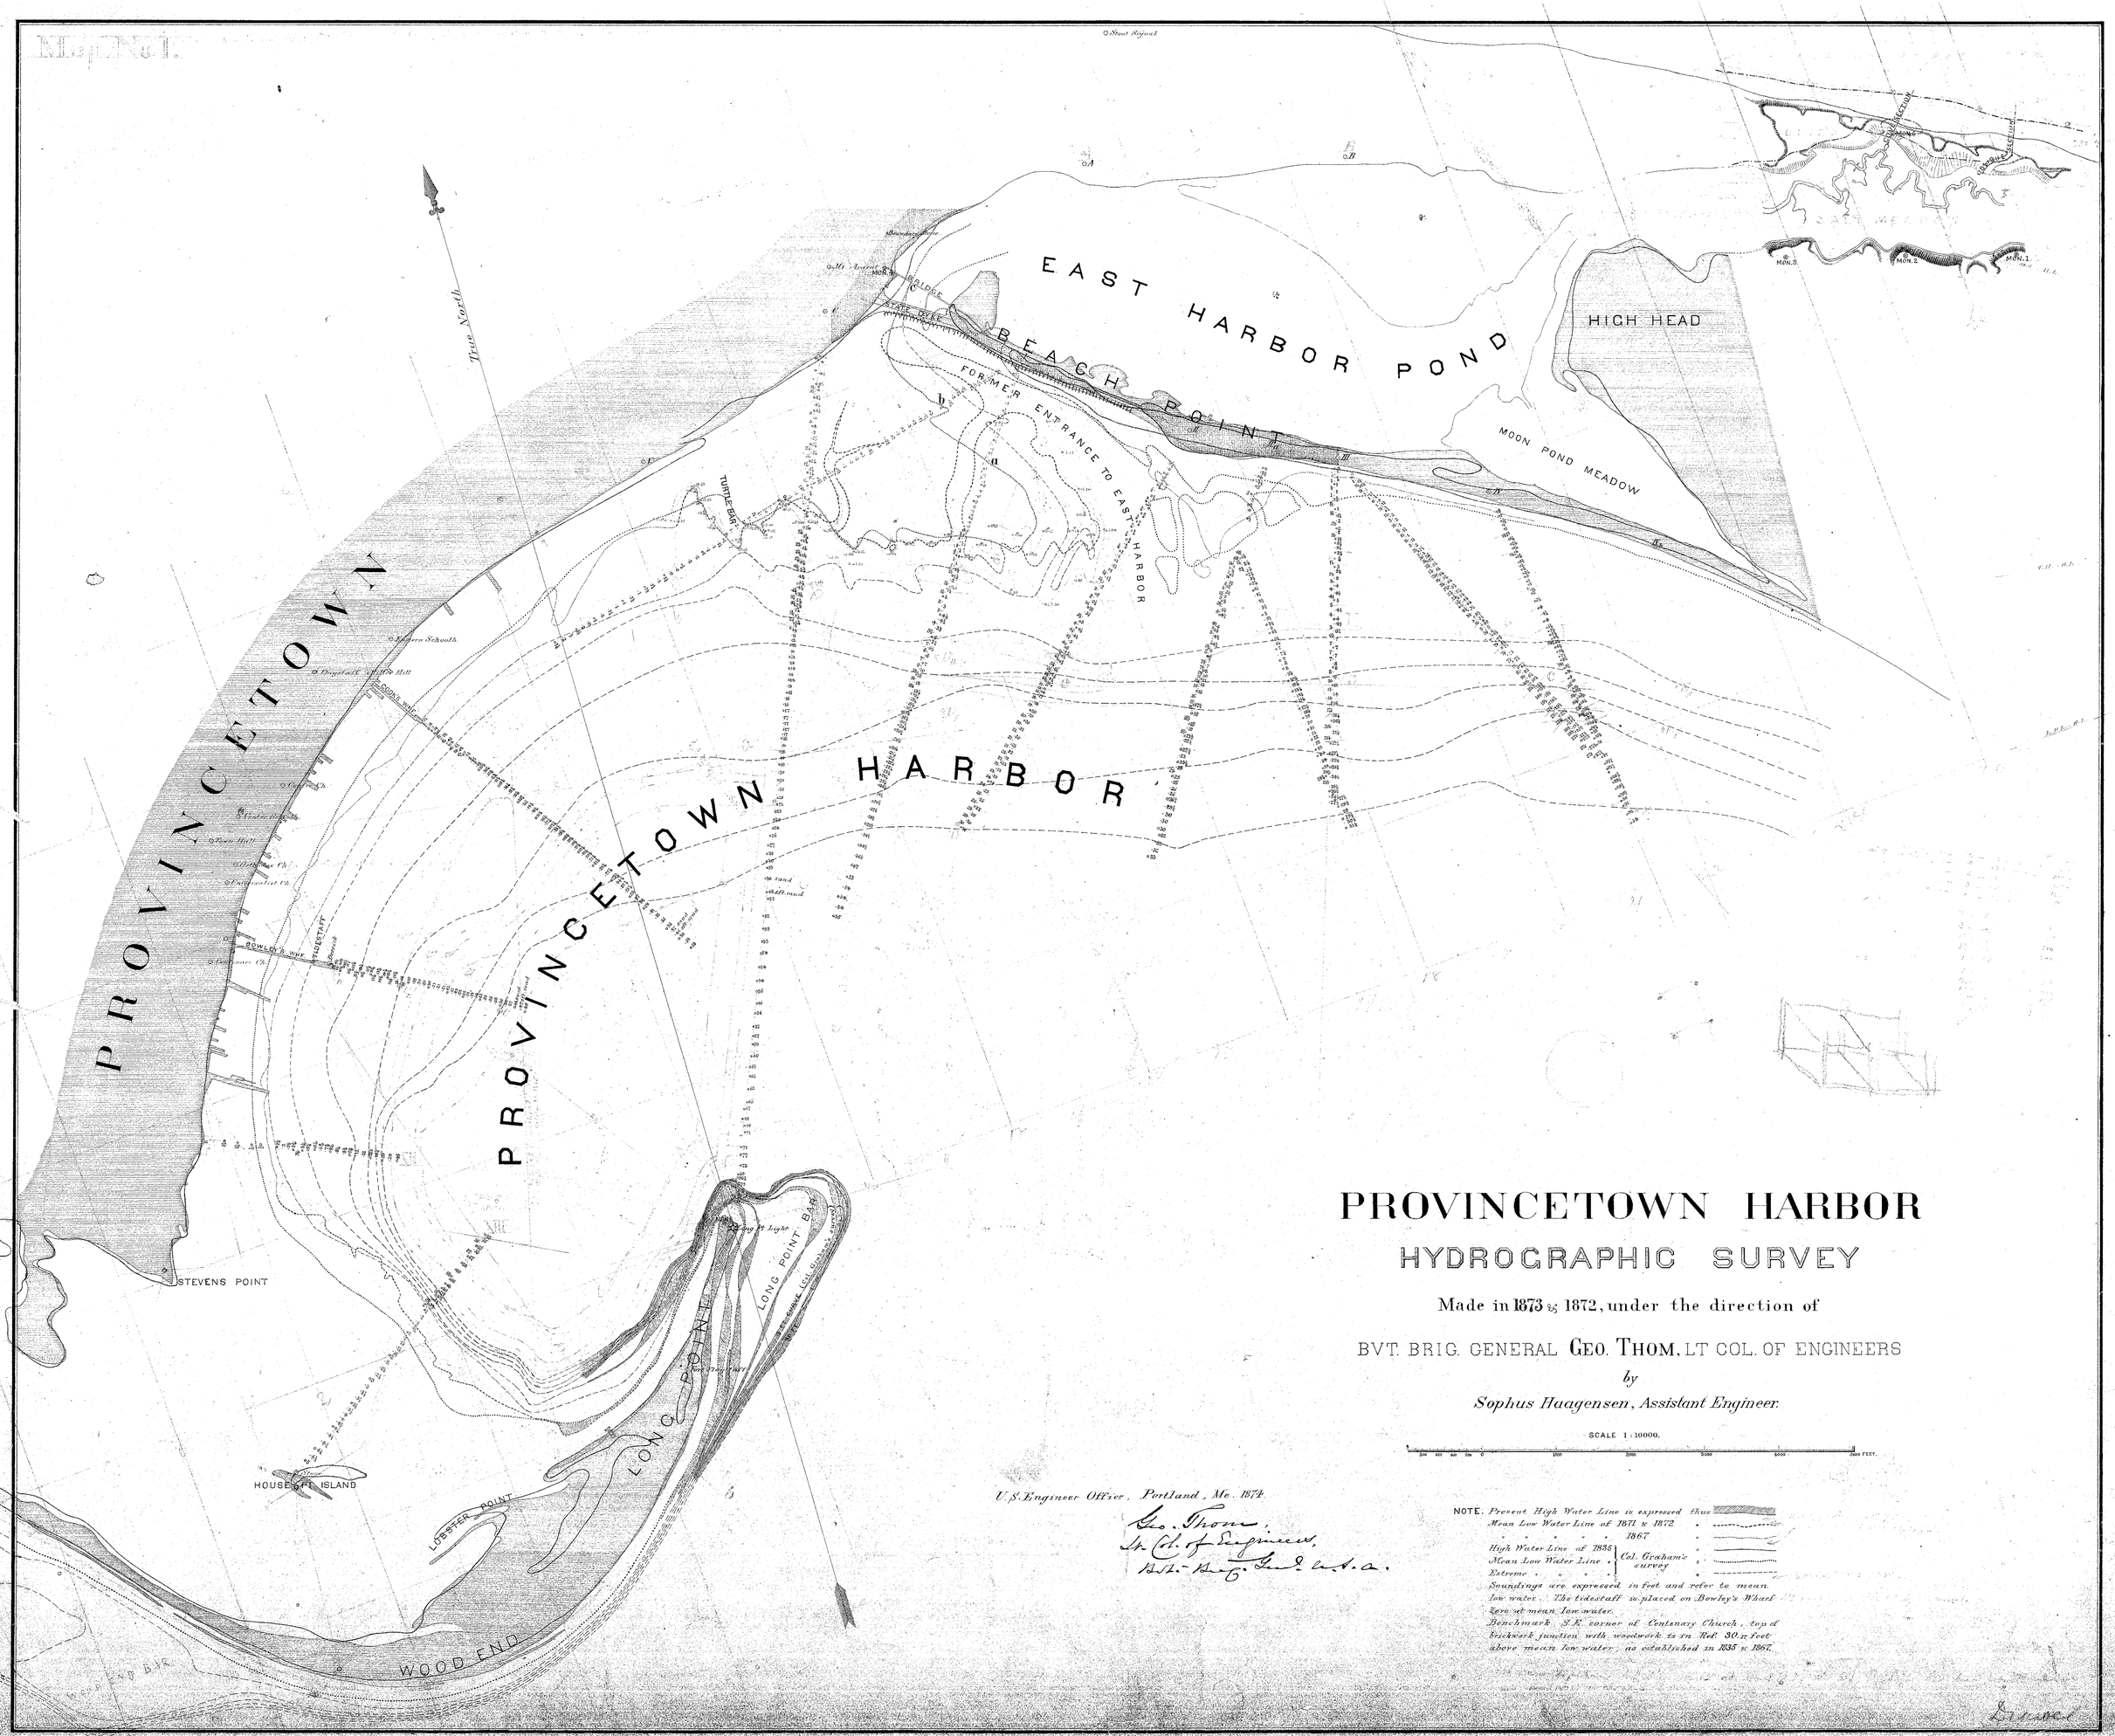
Map No. 1.



PROVINCETOWN HARBOR

HYDROGRAPHIC SURVEY

Made in 1873 & 1872, under the direction of

BVT. BRIG. GENERAL GEO. THOM, LT COL. OF ENGINEERS

by

Sophus Haagensen, Assistant Engineer.

SCALE 1:10000.

U.S. Engineer Office, Portland, Me. 1874.

Geo. Thom
Lt Col. of Engineers.
Bvt. Brig. Genl. U.S.A.

NOTE. Present High Water Line is expressed thus Mean Low Water Line of 1871 & 1872 "
" " " " 1867 "
High Water Line of 1835 } Col. Graham's survey
Mean Low Water Line " } Col. Graham's survey
Extreme " " " " " } Col. Graham's survey
Soundings are expressed in feet and refer to mean low water. The tidestaff is placed on Bowley's Wharf Zero at mean low water.
Benchmark S.E. corner of Centenary Church, top of brickwork junction with woodwork is in Ref. 30 in feet above mean low water, as established in 1835 & 1867.